

May 13, 2010, Innoventor receives the 2010 “Global Pioneer Award” from the Saint Louis Regional International Partnership

The Global Pioneer Award is presented to a small or medium size business located in the state of Missouri or Southwestern Illinois that has demonstrated innovation in international business for their efforts in exporting products and/or services.

The St. Louis Regional International Partnership is an alliance of internationally focused not-for-profit organizations in the region that support efforts to increase international trade, education, cultural exchanges, and world understanding to improve the socio-economic and cultural well being of the St. Louis region; specifically, and the world in general. The St. Louis region has a rich history of international trade. The St. Louis Regional International Partnership’s continued goal is to recognize that history and enhance our International future. The award recognizes Innoventor’s entry into International markets.
